The St George's Hall approach to conference and banqueting services is flexible and designed to meet all your specific requirements. Our management team will meet with you at the outset to establish your personal needs and help you to plan and budget accordingly.

Every member of staff is dedicated to supporting you throughout the process and of course we will be there during your function as well, to ensure everything runs smoothly and as planned.

The Hall is fully licensed and has a variety of rooms to suit a wide range of functions. Our Chef and his team are happy to create everything from a cold buffet for business meetings and conferences to banqueting menus for grand balls and wedding receptions. Whether you are looking for a venue for personal or corporate reasons St George's Hall is the ideal choice and our team is ready to turn your ideas into reality.

The Hall is ideally situated near the centre of Northampton and the main transport links, including the railway station, and we can also offer extensive private parking facilities for up to 125 cars. Some parking is underneath the Hall and so has covered access to the building.

The Ballroom

This large and attractive ground floor room has its own private bar facilities, a traditional wooden dance floor and a raised stage area. It is fully air conditioned with a P.A. system and disabled access.

Northampton Room

The ideal room for more intimate celebrations or smaller functions. This airy and well proportioned room is also situated on the ground floor and enjoys an adjoining private bar area.

The Lounge

A great room for smaller functions, with its own bar facilities and relaxed atmosphere, it can also be opened for guests to assemble for a drink before entering other rooms.

The Princes Room

This beautiful room is situated at the top of the grand staircase and features a magnificent victorian stained glass wall panel. It can cater for smaller functions and business meetings or seminars.

The Griggs Room

On the second floor, this lovely room also has its own private bar facilities and access to the relaxed balcony lounge area. It boasts elegant chandeliers as well as a stage and is a popular choice for all sorts of occasions, from wedding receptions to conferences.

Corporate Packages

We offer a comprehensive range of conference facilities, from one-to-one meetings to hosting 300 delegates, with or without catering. All of our rooms can be configured according to your specific requirements and arrangements can also be made for additional services and equipment hire.

Talk to one of our conference co-ordinators about your needs and we will be happy to advise, you can also arrange a tour of our facilities.
